

Statement by Mayor Paul B. Woodson, Jr.

Salisbury_North Carolina_December 20 – The following is a statement by Mayor Paul B. Woodson, Jr.

“We are so delighted and proud that Former Mayor Susan Kluttz has been appointed to the cabinet position of Secretary of Cultural Resources by Governor Pat McCrory. We will take this day to celebrate the admirable tenure Former Mayor Kluttz devoted to our community. We wish the newly appointed Secretary Kluttz the very best as she transitions to leading a critically important department in state government. The State of North Carolina has gained an outstanding leader and the City of Salisbury will greatly miss her wisdom and leadership.”

Mayor Woodson will meet with Former Mayor Kluttz next week regarding her position on the City Council and at that time will release an additional statement.

###